

ECONOMIC THOUGHT AND PRACTICE - INFORMATION FOR AUTHORS

“Economic Thought and Practice” (“Ekonomska misao i praksa”) is a peer-reviewed academic journal for economic theory and practice issued by the University of Dubrovnik.

All EMiP papers are reviewed using a 'double-blind' process where identity of neither authors or reviewers is not revealed. The authors need to submit two versions of their papers, a 'full' one which will be seen only by the handling Editor, and a 'blinded' version in which the names and addresses of authors have been removed and any identifying references have been suitably anonymised (the version sent to referees).

Submitted papers are first considered by the Editor to whom they were submitted. Papers that do not fall within the scope of EMiP are 'desk-rejected'. (Those that are borderline may be sent to an EMiP Advisory Editor who is a specialist on that topic for advice.) Papers that, while they address an EMiP issue, do so in a manner that is more appropriate to publication in other disciplinary journal, may also be desk-rejected (again following specialist advice from an Advisory Editor). In addition, papers that fail to meet a minimum threshold for quality and originality will be rejected without being sent out to reviewers.

Papers passing through this initial editorial scrutiny are then typically sent out to three referees. If one or more of these turns down the invitation to provide a review, other referees will subsequently be appointed. Normally, at least two authoritative reviews are needed before the handling Editor can make a decision as to whether to accept, reject, or ask for a 'revise and resubmit' of the submitted paper.

When returning the paper with the accepted reviewer's suggestions, the authors also have to submit a cover letter stating the changes that have been made in the paper with the page number.

The journal is published twice a year (June and December). The papers must be submitted no later than March 31st for publication in the June issue, and by September 30th for publication in the December issue.

Papers can be submitted and published in Croatian and English.

All authors who wish to publish their papers in this journal should send them to the e-mail address of the Editorial Board: ekon.misao@unidu.hr.
