

UNIVERSITY OF DUBROVNIK

DEPARTMENT OF ECONOMICS AND BUSINESS

DOUBLE DEGREE

GRADUATE UNIVERSITY STUDY PROGRAMME IN ENGLISH

•ECONOMICS / MARKETING / TOURISM

ABOUT THE PROGRAMME

Based on an Agreement between the University of Dubrovnik and the prestigious University of Palermo, Double Degree university graduate programmes have been established between the graduate studies of the Department of Economics and Business Economics of the University in Dubrovnik, i.e. Economics, Business Economics with specialisation in Marketing, and Business Economics and with specialisation in Tourism on the one hand, and graduate studies of the University of Palermo – Laurea Magistrale in Scienze Economiche e Finanziarie, Laurea Magistrale in Scienze Economiche Aziendali, and Tourism Systems and Hospitality Management in Italy, on the other. This Agreement enables the students who spend one semester at the partner institution and pass all exams from a list that has been aligned between the two universities to earn a degree from both the University of Dubrovnik and the University of Palermo, achieving thereby a competitive advantage on the European labour market.

ENROLMENT QUOTA

DOUBLE DEGREE GRADUATE UNIVERSITY STUDY PROGRAMMES

Ordinal Number	Programme name	Full-time students	Part-time students	Foreign nationals	Total
1.	EKONOMICS	5			5
2.	BUSINESS ECONOMICS – MARKETING	5			5
3.	BUSINESS ECONOMICS – TOURISM	5			5
GRAND TOTAL:					15

CONDITIONS FOR ENROLMENT

The selection of the candidates will be done based on their academic success, motivation and the level of their knowledge of the English language. Students selected for enrolment in Double Degree study programmes must have a sufficient knowledge of the English language, about which they need to enclose an official certificate.

If they do not have the certificate about the knowledge of the English language, a language exam will be carried out at the University Centre for Languages.

By enrolling a Double Degree graduate programme, students are obliged to spend one semester at the partner institution, i.e. the University of Palermo, Italy. During their stay at the University of Palermo, students must abide by all rules and regulations of the partner institution.

Students are obliged to take classes and pass exams in the following courses of the University of Palermo:

Graduate Programme in Economics	Graduate Programme in Business Economics – Marketing	Graduate Programme in Business Economics – Tourism
Economic Analysis (8 ECTS)	Statistics for Economics & Business (8 ECTS)	Statistics for Economics & Business (6 ECTS)
Topics in Economic Policy (8 ECTS)	Business Strategy (6 ECTS)	Strategic Management & Marketing for Tourism – Integrated course (12 ECTS)
Mathematics for Economics and Finance (10 ECTS)	Survey Methodology (8 ECTS)	Human Resources (6 ECTS)
Corporate Strategy (8 ECTS)	Financial Accounting (4 ECTS)	Free subjects (suggested) (8 ECTS)
	Financial Planning and Control

By enrolling a Double Degree graduate programme, students are obliged to complete their study within 3 years so that they can be awarded the internationally recognised degree from both the University of Dubrovnik and the University of Palermo.

APPLICATIONS FOR ADMISSION

Any person who has completed an appropriate undergraduate or graduate programme may apply for a Double Degree graduate programme.

SCHOLARSHIPS AND TUITION

Full-time students who are Croatian nationals and who have enrolled the first year of the graduate programme for the first time do not pay any tuition. During their stay at the partner university abroad, students of the University of Dubrovnik are exempt from the payment of the tuition, but they may be requested to pay a fee for the services that are normally charged to the students of the receiving university (photocopying, insurance and similar). Travelling, health insurance, housing and all other costs incurred during their stay at the partner university abroad are borne by the student. Students enrolled at a Double Degree graduate programme may apply for Erasmus+ call for students – activity of studying abroad – and they can thus have their stay at the partner university co-financed. Students are to apply to Erasmus+ call under the same conditions as the rest of the students of the University of Dubrovnik, in accordance with the available funds.

WHAT MAKES US DIFFERENT

The Department of Economics and Business Economics fosters an individual approach to students, taking into account their needs and aspirations. This Department has you and your future in focus and you can be sure that the enrolment at a study programme with the Department of Economics and Business Economics is the right choice for you. Classes at our programme are taught by our professors, by visiting professors as well as by renowned experts from practice who know how to recognise talents, understand professional goals of students and help them realize these goals. Our computer labs are equipped with a state-of-the-art technology. Studying at this Department comes with an additional benefit, i.e. the participation in the ERASMUS mobility programme. This programme enables students to study during one semester or during the whole year at a partner university abroad. Our cooperation with various enterprises, Dubrovnik-Neretva County and the City of Dubrovnik ensures students the opportunity for gaining practical knowledges and for doing their professional practice.

OUR FACILITIES AND EQUIPMENT

- Two amphitheatres
- Seven lecture theatres
- One computer laboratory
- Interactive whiteboards and LCD projectors in all lecture theatres
- Library, reading room and computer reading room
- Centre for Tourist Documentation and Information
- Wireless internet system

CONTACT

www.unidu.hr

Email: upisi@unidu.hr

Phone: +385 20 446 028

