

INTERNSHIP OPPORTUNITY

Student Communication Assistant (EUNICOast)

Duration: 5 to 6 months

Start date: Beginning of 2026

Location: University of Le Havre Normandy (Le Havre, France)

Working language: English (some French optional)

Eligibility: Open to students enrolled in one of the EUNICOast partner universities

Why this role matters

You will own Instagram strategy for 100,000 students across 12 European universities. This isn't about supporting someone else's vision, you'll have genuine creative control over content, campaigns, and community engagement.

This role gives you real responsibility on a €14.4M EU-funded project. You'll build portfolio-quality work whilst connecting students to educational opportunities across Europe.

What you'll actually do

Social media: community management and content creation

- Develop and execute Instagram editorial calendar with your creative ideas
- Create visual content that engages 100,000+ students across 12 countries
- Cover student events with photos, short videos, and interviews
- Monitor performance metrics and adapt strategy based on engagement data

Student-to-student communication and events

- Organise student activities at Université Le Havre Normandie (games, info sessions, meetups)
- Support online events targeting students across the Alliance
- Collect and share testimonials from students in EUNICOast projects or mobilities
- Lead awareness campaigns promoting Alliance opportunities

Occasional support

- Assist with communication logistics and campaigns
- Contribute student-oriented content to EUNICOast newsletter

What we provide

- Accommodation near campus (arranged before you arrive)
- Monthly stipend in line with French legal framework, may be combined with Erasmus+ mobility grants depending on your situation
- Travel across Europe to cover Alliance events and activities
- Multicultural work environment with colleagues across 12 partner universities
- Professional networking access to European higher education sector
- Portfolio-quality work on a major EU-funded international project
- Real creative autonomy and meaningful responsibilities

Who we're looking for

- Currently enrolled in communication, marketing, or events management
- Strong knowledge of social media platforms with genuine interest in community management
- Experience in content creation using Canva, Adobe Creative Suite (Photoshop, Illustrator, Premiere Pro or equivalent), and digital communication tools. Ability to produce visual assets is required.
- Good communication skills in English (written and spoken) – some French optional
- Creative, dynamic, and motivated to propose new ideas
- Organised, reliable, and proactive
- Interest in student life, European cooperation, and teamwork

About EUNICOast

EUNICOast is a European University Alliance bringing together 12 higher education institutions across Europe. We strengthen cooperation in education, research, and innovation.

The Alliance builds a common academic and cultural space where students, staff, and researchers collaborate, share knowledge, and create opportunities at European scale. Student life and communication are central to our mission; students actively shape the Alliance's identity.

How to apply

Send your application to: julien.corbet@eunicoast.eu

Application deadline: 15 January 2026

Include: CV & Motivation letter

We look forward to receiving your application!